LEGAL REASONING

31. d

Explanation: The key is “moves that property...taking”. it is clear from the facts that he moved the cell phone in such a way that he could later take it away.

32. a

Explanation: you need to look at two things: the underlying concept- difference between a ‘servant’ and agent’, and more important, the facts: B sent his servant, whereas, according to the contract, it should have been sent through A’s agent.

33. c

Explanation: perfect case of damnum sine injuria!

We have done it ad ad nauseam in class as well as in the modules- refer to the Moghul Steamship Company case in your Legal Reasoning Module I !

Even in page 20 of Legal Reasoning Module I, question 3- the facts are totally similar, except the names of the parties!!!

34. b

Clear case of the test of reasonable foresight- the mother should have foreseen that leaving the car in gear was potentially dangerous!

Refer pg. 120, q. No 3, Legal Reasoning Module I.

35. c

Explanation: Direct application of the principle.

36. c

Explanation: Consideration should be reasonable, the act here is a gratuitous one, and the parties never intended to enter into a legally binding relationship.

READING COMPREHENSION

Passage 1

121. c

Explanation: Option (a) also looks close, but minute observation would show that ‘a’ does not gel at all, how can one merely say that ‘liability is strict’?

122. d

123. d

Explanation: Refer to this portion of the passage: “The enterprise must be held to be under an obligation.....carried carefully or not”.
